TRIES TO KILL AN EPISCOPAL PREACHER AT JACKSON,

Upon the Statement of His Wife That He Seduced Her a Year Avo.

(SCECIAL TO THE APPEAL.) Jackson, Tesh, November 2.—This evening between 3 and 4 o'clock Mr. John B. Newman, freight conductor on the Illinois Central railroad, shot and seriously wounded the Rev. G. W. Hinkle, rector of St. Luke's Ediscopal Church of this city. Mr. Newman Church of this city. Mr. Newman was standing talking to some friends in the courthouse yard during the election, when he raised his head and discovered Dr. Hinkle walking about twenty or thirty yards from him. Mr. Newman immediately rushed toward him with his drawn pistol, and some voices in the crowd cried out: "Hinkle, Hinkle! run, run!" Dr. Hinkle, turning and seeing Newman rushing toward him. Newman susting toward him, broke and ran down the street toward the Bright House, Mr. Newman in hot pursuit. Dr. Hin-kle, when near the Bright House, shot at the first time when he turned down the alley towards the jail. Newman quickly followed and fired two more spots, the third taking effect in Dr. Hinkle's right shoulder, producing a very painful but not mortal wound. The cause of the trouble was Mr. Newman's wife, who conf.s ed to her husband today that the Rev. Dr. Hinkle had saduced her in 1885 while they were both sitting up with a sick fr end, and that he had made two similar advances since that time. The confession of the frail wife fell like a thunderbolt upon her injured hus-band, as he had never had cause to suspect her before. The awful affair has created the most profound excitement in the best circles. Mrs. Newman acknowledges that she was se-duced by Dr. Hinkle. Dr. Hinkle has always been considered a high toned that was the only ward carried by the State Seno Republicans. All of the others went largely Democratic. The saloons were kept closed, as far as outward appearances went, and there was little drunk-enness and no rowdyism. At the Tenth Ward two workingmen had a Griffin 119. fight about a private matter, but no blood was spilled. Dennis Carney, an od crank, g t into trouble as u usl, and one causeless arcest was made for illegal voting, at the instance of Gen. W. J. Smith. There was very little scratching done. A few First Warders used their pencils, but the rule was straight tickets everywhere. A great many darkies, declaring themselves disgusted with their old bosses, the Republicans, voted with the Democracy, and nowhere was there any bulldozing or any attempt made by either side to influence voters on way or the other. The importance of the election had been strongly ur.ed for weeks, both sides presenting a full ticket. The Democrats presented for G vernor, Robert L. Taylor; for Congress, James Pielan; for State Sena'e, Lynn and Montedonico; for the House of Representatives, Har-rell, Davis, Allen, Clapp and Odium. The Republicans presented for Governor, A. A. Taylor; for Congress, Zich Taylor; for State Senate, Hamilton and Smith; for the House of Representatives, Speaks, Fields (colored), Pickering, Rideout (colored), and

The total city vote was as follows: Governor.—Robt. L. Taylor 4871, 4.

Congress - James Phelan 4804, Zach Taylor 1398. State Senate .- Lynn 4930, Montedonico 4830, Hamilton 1338, Smith 1314. House of Representatives,—Harrell 4899, Davis 4834. Allen 4896, Clapp 4912, Odlum 4628, Spesks 1370, Fields 1301, Pickering 1308, Rideout 1341, Griffin 1349.

The total vote for Governor as shown by the above was 6274. Two years ago the total vote for VIENNA, November 2 - The police Governor was 8817, or 2543 great r of this city so far have been bailled than it was yesterday. The vote then was divided as follows: Governor.—Bate 4598, Reed 4219.

It may justly be said that the apathy of the darky contingent of the Rapublican party and the enthusiasm of the friends of Mr. James Phelan saved the ticket, and not only saved it, but gave it a majority in the county sufficiently large to raise the oldest i habitante out of their boots. He leaves the city with 3466 mejority over his Republic-an opponent and the reports from outlying districts indicate that he wil leave the county with nearly if not quite that majority. Many of the rural districts which have in the past gone largely Republican, are more than redeemed and show the figures on the other side, to the credit of the Democrats. The same indifference on the part of the Republicans is re ported from Tipton, Fayette and Hardeman counties. The latter gives Phelan 600 majority, and he has carried Tipton by at least 150. In Fayette, it is said, the usual Republican majority of 1200 has been cut down nearly one-half. Group-ing all these facts, it may be safely announced that Mr. Phelan's majority in the district will be in the neighbor hood of 3000, and that the entire ticket in Shelby is elected by a majority equally as great. Mr. Phelan has been the life and soul of the ticket. He alone, of all the candidates, mount ed the stump and there he freely and unequivocally announced his views on every public question. The wis-dom of his nomination is shown by the handsome majority given him by the people of the Tenth District.
